How many lots will be available to buy?

There were 87 new lots created from the approximately 7.8 ha site. More than 70 lots will be available for private sale, including under the MyHome shared equity program.

Why does Homes Tasmania subdivide land?

Homes Tasmania is committed to increasing social and affordable housing. More Tasmanians will be able to make their dream of home ownership a reality with about 85 per cent of new lots to be available for home purchase.

Delivering residential subdivisions on surplus Government land is one way we can put downward pressure on rising land prices for homeowners and ensure land supply is available for new housing for Tasmanians.

What is social and affordable housing?

Social housing is provided by the government (public housing) and non-government (community housing) with rent generally set around 25 per cent of income (excluding Commonwealth Rent Assistance where applicable).

Affordable housing is rental homes or land and/or home purchases that are affordable to low-income households, ie housing costs do not put the household in housing stress.

Who owns the land?

The land is owned by Homes Tasmania. The land was transferred from the Department of Education in 2020.

How will the subdivision help the community?

The subdivision will increase housing in an area with high demand for social and affordable housing and provide opportunities for home ownership.

Construction will be completed by a local contractor employing local staff and directly contributing to the local economy. More economic benefits, including job creation, will result from the construction of the new homes.

How will nice houses and good tenancy management be assured?

New residential developments are based on mixed-tenure arrangements.

Modern social housing uses contemporary design and allocation processes. There are numerous examples of inner-city, medium-high density social housing developments that are successfully incorporated into the fabric of the surrounding community.

In this proposed subdivision, most of the land will go to home ownership.
